

DAIJU KURASAWA

倉沢 大樹 くらさわ だいじゅ

ELECTONE CONCERT
@ SAKURA JAPAN

ABOUT THE PERFORMER

Daiju Kurasawa is an acclaimed and award-winning Electone artiste / jazz pianist, performing nationwide in Japan both solo and with numerous artistes since winning Grand Prix Award in the prestigious International Electone Festival (1993) in Singapore. He was the lead musician at Nagano Winter Olympics' (1998) medal ceremony.

In 2007, his CD "JAZZ ID" was released by Yamaha Music Media, with which Daiju has published a variety of Electone scores.

WHAT IS ELECTONE?

Electone is a Japan-born electric organ invented by Yamaha. Since its first model launch in 1959, for every generation change, new technology has been adopted into subsequent models. Loved by numerous music professionals and performers, it is also widely used for education.
